

LINCOLN RESTLER SELLS YOU OUT.

Brooklyn Heights money. Bike-lane priorities. A pledge to shrink the NYPD. A wife inside the mayor's budget office. Five years in, it is fair to ask who Lincoln Restler is actually working for.

5

council members who voted against a police pension bill on May 20, 2026. Restler was one.

15

Democrats who quit his caucus rather than sign his pledge to shrink the NYPD.

$417,555

in taxpayer matching funds for his three campaigns.

3%

of his 2025 campaign money came from Greenpoint. Half came from one Brooklyn Heights ZIP code.

24%

of the vote went to a challenger with no money in the 2025 primary.

CYCLISTS OVER FAMILIES.

A three-year-old was hit in the Bedford Avenue bike lane and Williamsburg parents begged the city to move it. Restler filed a court affidavit to keep it, and City Hall said he had "turned his back on the very people he was elected to represent." On McGuinness Boulevard he pushed a road diet over hundreds of Greenpoint neighbors and the businesses that employ them. He voted against telling you when your parking spot is removed, and wrote a bill to tow cars for alternate-side violations.

RAISED ON WALL STREET. VOTES WITH THE SOCIALISTS.

Son of a private-equity founder and a J.P. Morgan managing director. Packer Collegiate. Brown. Pierrepont Street. "Trust fund baby" is what the Brooklyn Democratic Party chair says people call him. Half his 2025 campaign cash came from one Brooklyn Heights ZIP code; Greenpoint gave $3,130; taxpayers added $202,667. He endorsed Zohran Mamdani and carries the democratic-socialist mayor's agenda in the Council while calling himself a fighter for working people. He spent $27,600 polling a race he won by 51 points. Someone is measuring a bigger electorate.

"DIVISIVE IN MANY WAYS" WITH "A NARROW VIEW BASED ON HIS PERSONAL AGENDA."

Rodneyse Bichotte Hermelyn, Chair of the Brooklyn Democratic Party, explaining why the party ran a candidate against him in 2025.

WE DESERVE BETTER THAN A PRIVATE-EQUITY NEPO BABY WHO SELLS US OUT FOR CYCLISTS WHILE POLISHING HIS SOCIALIST CREDENTIALS FOR HIS NEXT CAMPAIGN.

On March 26, 2026 he also voted no on security perimeters around schools during protests, then rallied at City Hall for the veto. Ask him why.
